You must give complete answers to all questions. If you check any box which is a "yes" answer, then you must list all offenses, and for each conviction provide date of conviction and disposition, regardless of the date or location of occurrence. Please answer in the next field below. Conviction of a criminal offense is not a bar to employment in all cases. Each case is considered on its merits. Your answers will be verified with appropriate police records.

Criminal Offense includes felonies, misdemeanors, summary offenses and convictions resulting from a plea of "nolo contendere" (no contest). Conviction is an adjudication of guilt and includes determinations before a court, a district justice or a magistrate, which results in a fine, sentence or probation. You may omit: minor traffic violations, offenses committed before your 18th birthday which were adjudicated in juvenile court or under a Youth Offender Law, and any convictions which have been expunged by a court or for which you successfully completed an Accelerated Rehabilitative Disposition program. Please check boxes that apply to you.

Were you ever convicted of a criminal offense?

Are you currently under charges for a criminal offense?

Have you ever forfeited bond or collateral in connection with a criminal offense?

Within the last ten years, have you been fired from any job for any reason?

Within the last ten years, have you quit a job after being notified that you would be fired?

Are you subject to any visa or immigration status, which would prevent lawful employment?

If you checked the box answering "Yes" to any question above, you must list all offenses, and for each conviction provide date of conviction and disposition, regardless of the date or location of occurrence. Conviction of a criminal offense is not a bar to employment in all cases. Each case is considered on its merits. Your answers will be verified with appropriate police records.
